TALK TO HIGHLIGHT
GREEK SYSTEM AT UM

MISSOULA---

Candid discussion of the pros and cons of the Greek system will help incoming freshmen make their choice during Orientation Week at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Four UM students, two affiliated with sororities and fraternities and two independents, will participate in a panel discussion, "Greek or Independent--Which Way Should I Choose?" Sept. 23 at UM for the benefit of freshmen faced with the decision of whether to pledge a sorority or fraternity or to remain independent. UM Orientation Week is Sept. 21-27.

Panel participants include Marsha Jean McElwain, senior in elementary education, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. McElwain, 3024 Elm Park Dr., Missoula; Barbara Susan Cook, senior in philosophy and English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Cook, 1232 Ave. D., Billings; Wendell W. Guthrie, sophomore in political science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Guthrie, 102 Mary, Missoula; and Ronald J. Mehrens, senior in mathematics, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Mehrens, 617 W. Diamond, Butte.

Moderator for the panel is a junior in the UM law school, Roger A. Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Barber, Denton.

"An open discussion on Greek-independent life should be incorporated into Orientation Week," Barber said. "Greek rush is one of the major aspects of freshman orientation at UM, and entering freshmen should have the opportunity to hear all sides of the issue without the pressure of a rush situation."

The panel discussion is a first for Orientation Week at UM.
